Spiritual Definitions

Definition of a definition:
A statement expressing the essential nature of something.
Note; There is no relationship to what a majority may think and/or decide in determining the meaning of the word.
The "nature" of the following words as definitions; to suggest how to re-evaluate worldly definitions in accordance to what the world has taught.

Human Being;
An eternal spirit-soul instilled into a flesh body to live and experience traits from perspectives not found in the spiritual world.
These trait-experiences are; negativity, fear, separation, ego, and judgement.

Spiritual Being;
A created eternal perfect spirit-soul created from and by perfection. A part of Creation forming a oneness with the instilled One love, One Word, the One, I AM.

Consciousness;
The spiritual conscious-mindset within the eternal created-soul; having individuality from the One Creator Consciousness.

Experiences;
Formulated from the consciousness of an individual to participate in an act from common spiritual knowledge.

Judgement;
Impeding or formulating an unnecessary perception towards another without understanding. A freewill interfering tactic.

Freewill;
A voluntary action from one's own accord with absolutely no interference in any way from any entity, spirit, or soul.

Ego;
The worldly mindset without God, having the appearance of protection and keeping in the personal god theme by way of me-ism. The ego may make you think your feeling good. Fact check if your in anxiety.

Fear;
An adrenaline feeling that produces a lack of faith, hope, and a false separation from One.

Time;
A flesh construct that interferes with the understanding of living from the now-present perspective, instilling confusion from the past.

Space;
Another flesh construct with the illusion of distance. Without space, everything is connected.

Forgiveness;
From the heart, letting go of the negatives that undermine the understanding of love. Overcome by neutralizing bitterness, anger, hatred, and personal attacks.

Eternal;
Absolute unconditional lives where life continues in experiences balancing the positive, negative, and neutral aspects. i.e. heavens and hells emulating from consciousness into physical manifestations.

Death;
Can not be experienced in the spiritual realms. From the world, it's simply opposition to life.

Negativity;
An important part of the earthly process of freewill used in equal association with positivity and neutrality. Negativity happens through you, not to you.

Oneness;
From One, created souls with individuality connected to One connected to Creation.

Unconditional Love;
Unconditional means unconditional. Unconditional love created you. You are made of unconditional love. Existence itself.

What Is Your Definition?
Defining any word should ultimately come from within the individual soul in accordance to the truth set forth from the souls heart and none other.

MJI (LightWorker)